12. Opening of Bids by the Procuring agency

12.1 Attendance of the bidders' representative during opening of technical proposal is optional whereas the attendance of the bidders' representative in financial bid opening is compulsory. In case of the non-appearance of the bidder or his/her representative on the opening of the financial bid, the bid shall be cancelled.

12.2 The procuring agency will open all bids in the presence of bidders' representatives and the Tender Committee, at the time, on the date, and at the place specified in the Bid Data Sheet. The bidders' representatives who are present shall sign attendance sheet evidencing their attendance.

12.3 The bidders' names, bid modifications or withdrawals, bid prices, discounts, and the presence or absence of requisite bid security and such other details as the procuring agency, at its discretion, may consider appropriate, will be announced at the opening. Late bids shall be rejected and returned unopened to the Bidder.

13. Clarification of Bids

13.1 During evaluation of the bids, the Procuring agency may, at its discretion, ask the Bidder for a clarification of its bid. The request for clarification and the response shall be in writing, and no change in the prices or substance of the bid shall be sought, offered, or permitted. The bidder can also contact the Procuring agency/procurement committee/tender committee or Consulate of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Jeddah for any clarification.

14. Preliminary Examinations

14.1 The Procuring agency/procurement committee/tender committee will examine the bids to determine whether they are complete, whether any computational errors have been made, whether required sureties have been furnished, whether the documents have been properly signed, and whether the bids are generally in order.

14.2 Arithmetical errors will be rectified on the following basis. If there is a discrepancy between the unit price and the total price that is obtained by multiplying the unit price and quantity, the unit price shall prevail, and the total price shall be corrected. If the Supplier does not accept the correction of the errors, its bid will be rejected, and its bid security may be forfeited. If there is a discrepancy between words and figures, the amount in words will prevail over the amount in figures.

14.3 The Procuring agency/procurement committee/tender committee may waive any minor informality, nonconformity, or irregularity in a bid which does not constitute a material deviation, provided such waiver does not prejudice or affect the relative ranking of any Bidder, as per PPRA Rules.

14.4 Prior to the detailed evaluation, the procuring agency will determine the substantial responsiveness of each bid to the bidding documents. For purposes of these Clauses, a substantially responsive bid is one which conforms to all the terms and conditions of the bidding documents without material deviations. Deviations from, or objections or reservations to critical provisions, such as those concerning bid security, applicable laws, and taxes and duties, will be deemed to be a material deviation. The procuring agency's determination of a bid's responsiveness is to be based on the contents of the bid itself without recourse to extrinsic evidence.

14.5 If a bid is not responsive, it will be rejected by the Procuring agency and may not subsequently be made responsive by the Bidder by correction of the nonconformity.

15. Evaluation and Comparison of Bids

15.1 The procuring agency will evaluate and compare the bids which have been determined to be substantially responsive.

15.2 Technically responsive bids will be evaluated for complete scope of works. The prices will be compared on the basis of the Evaluated Bid Price.

15.3 Final evaluation report will be hoisted on PPRA website, as per PPRA rules.

16. Contacting the Procuring agency

16.1 No Bidder shall contact the Procuring agency on any matter relating to its bid, from the time of the bid opening to the time the contract is awarded. If the Bidder wishes to bring additional information to the notice of the Procuring agency, it should do so in writing.

16.2 Any effort by a Bidder to influence the procuring agency in its decisions on bid evaluation, bid comparison, or contract award may result in the rejection of the Bidder's bid.

17. Post qualification

17.1 The bidder with the most advantageous bid will be considered for the award of the contract as per TORs and contract agreement in this tender. The letter of Award will be issued to the prospective bidder after the evaluation of the financial bid. In case of non-responsive for seven (07) working days bid security will be forfeited and the letter of award will be issued to the next most advantageous bidder, after the recommendation of the Tender Committee.

18. Award Criteria

18.1 The Procuring agency after post qualification process will award the contract to the successful Bidder whose bid has been determined to be responsive and has been determined to be the most advantageous bid. A formal agreement will be signed between the contracting parties as per provided TORs.

19. Procuring Agency's Right to Vary Quantities at Time of Award

19.1 The Procuring agency reserves the right at the time of contract award to increase or decrease, by the percentage indicated in the Bid Data Sheet, the quantity of goods and services originally specified in the Schedule of Requirements without any change in unit price or other terms and conditions.

19.2 The Procuring agency reserves the right at the time of contract award to increase, up to 15%, of the quantity of goods and services originally specified in the Schedule of Requirements without any change in unit price or other terms and conditions as per PPRA rules.

20. Procuring agency's right to accept any Bid and to reject any or All Bids

20.1 The Procuring agency reserves the right to accept or reject any bid, and to annul the bidding process and reject all bids at any time prior to contract award, without thereby incurring any liability to the affected Bidder or bidders and in accordance with provisions of Public Procurement Rules 2004.

21. Notification of Award

21.1 Prior to the expiration of the period of bid validity, the Procuring agency will notify the successful Bidder in writing by registered letter or by cable, to be confirmed in writing by registered letter, that its bid has been accepted.

21.2 The notification of award will constitute the formation of the Contract.

21.3 Upon the successful Bidder's furnishing of the performance security the Procuring agency will promptly notify each unsuccessful Bidder and will discharge its bid security.

22. Signing of Contract

22.1 At the same time as the Procuring agency notifies the successful Bidder that its bid has been accepted, the Procuring agency will send the Bidder the Contract Form provided in the bidding documents, incorporating all agreements between the parties.

22.2 Within seven (07) working days of receipt of the Contract Form, the successful Bidder shall sign and date the contract and return it to the Procuring agency/procurement committee/tender committee or Consulate of Islamic Republic of Pakistan, Jeddah.

23. Performance Security

23.1 Within fifteen (15) days of the receipt of notification of award from the Procuring agency, the successful Bidder shall furnish the performance security (10% of the contract value) in accordance with the Conditions of Contract, provided in the bidding documents, or in another form acceptable to the procuring agency.

23.2 Failure of the successful Bidder to comply with the requirement shall constitute sufficient grounds for the annulment of the award and forfeiture of the bid security, in which event the procuring agency may make the award to the second most advantageous bidder as per recommendation of the Tender Committee.

24. Corrupt or Fraudulent Practices

24.1 The Government of Pakistan requires that Procuring agency as well as Bidders/Suppliers/Contractors under Government-financed contracts, observe the highest standard of ethics during the procurement and execution of such contracts. In pursuance of this policy and Rules made there under, PPRA:

- (a) Defines, for the purposes of this provision, the terms set forth below as follows:
 - (i) "corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution; and
 - (ii) "fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Procuring agency, and includes collusive practice among Bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial noncompetitive levels and to deprive the Procuring agency of the benefits of free and open competition;
- (b) Will reject a proposal for award if it determines that the Bidder recommended for award has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for the contract in question;
- (c) Will declare a firm ineligible, either indefinitely or for a stated period of time, to be awarded a Government-financed contract if it at any time determines that the firm has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing, a Government-financed contract.
